that class is entirely vacant. It is not, however, possible to fill up the 2 places there, since it has been laid down (in the order of 13-12-02) that three years' approved service in the 2nd class is necessary before an officer can be promoted to the 1st class, and none of the officers now in the second class have put in that period of service. (They were all placed in the 2d class on 9-1-03).

5. The analogy of the course taken in 1903 (i.e. the inclusion of a supernumerary in class II to make up for a deficiency in class I) seems to require, or at least to favour, the inclusion of another supernumerary officer in class II to make up for the other place vacant in class I. This is what the Chief Judge also suggests, adding that his impression is that "it is the policy of Govt. to keep five Munsiffs on Rs 350 and Rs 300" in all

8. I think the retired Chief Judge's suggestion is correct let him be put in one supernumerary in the 2nd class because there was one out of the sanctioned strength wanting in the 1st class. And now, owing to the death of Mr Loobidas & to there being none entitled to take his place under standing orders, there is none at all in the 1st class. On the analogy of Mr Jayawarna Deyas case, Mr

9. It is also a question whether one of the Munsiffs in the 4th Class, should not in that case be similarly promoted to the 3rd Class. On this point however, we have no proposal from the Chief Court.

and the 2nd C would consist of one, if the permanent premium is continued I can see no reason why the 2nd class should be allowed to keep a third of the annuities so kept up there will be no extra charges from a financial point of view.

13. The premium of two lower annuities to the 1st C. when they qualify themselves for it, will not affect those in the lower class.

The C. Judge's opinion may be quoted as regards the permanent Pr. Srikanta Gowda which is at the top of the 4th class.

Submitted to His Highness.

15 There are two vacancies in the first grade on 350 ~~Rs~~. The men on 300 are not eligible to be promoted to 350 as they have not been in the required period of three on 300. But Mr Jagaroop Iyer who was deserving of promotion was promoted to 300 as a supernumerary. Mr Sobraliyar has now been recommended to be dealt with in the same manner. He has been on his present pay for more than four years. As there is a chance and he has been recommended by the chief court the precedent furnished by the case of Mr Jagaroop Iyer may be followed and his promotion as supernumerary in the second grade may be sanctioned.

Chief Court.

30th June 1904.

My dear Sir Krishna Murthy,

To this date, Mr.Gopal Iyengar, Principal Munsiff of Bangalore, represented to me that by reason of the death of Mr.Subba Rao (First Class Munsiff) there was a vacancy in the 1st grade of Munsiffs and that he, being first in the third Class, was entitled to promotion to the second grade. I think that there is no vacancy in the second grade that he can claim higher pay as a matter of course, but his application may be favourably considered by Government on the grounds that there is at present no Munsiff of the First Class, and that there are only four Munsiffs drawing Rs.300 each, whereas it is the policy of Government to keep five Munsiffs on Rs.350 and Rs.300. This was the impression which was left upon my mind when, on the date of reclassifying our Munsiffs, the Government promoted Mr.Subba Rao to the first grade and appointed Mr.Jayarama Iyer Supernumerary Munsiff of the second grade and thereby made up the full of Munsiffs of First and second grade. If my impression is correct, I beg to recommend Mr.Gopala Iyengar's application to your favourable notice, - since he has been presiding with credit over the Principal Munsiff's Court in Bangalore and is senior among the Munsiffs of third grade.

Yours very truly,

A Ramachandra Iyer
